Appetizing Adjectives

Now that we have finished out chapter on Adjectives, you are ready to design a mouth-watering restaurant menu using a plethora of adjectives to make the foods sound more appetizing. Your menu needs to include the following sections: Lunch, Dinner, and Beverages. You can choose either of the following to add to the menu: Dessert or Breakfast.

Steps to the Assignment

Step 1

Decide on a name for your restaurant and what you would want to have on the cover of your menu. Make the cover appealing to people, the cover should make people want to at least look at your menu.

On your cover you must have the following information:

- a) Name of the restaurant
- b) Restaurant picture or logo on the front of the menu
- c) Contact information of the restaurant (Days open, Hours Open, Telephone Number, Address)

Step 2

Start with your first section. Please put the title at the top of the page along with the time that you serve this meal from. (If you chose Breakfast, this section would come first. If you did not choose breakfast, then lunch would come first).

You must pick at least 5 foods that you will serve for this meal, along with the prices of each meal. Remember you can't just say you are selling a cheeseburger, you have to use lots of adjectives to name and describe the cheeseburger.

Step 3

The next section of your menu is your next course. Please put the title at the top of the page along with the time that you serve this meal from (If you used breakfast for Step 2, than this step would be your lunch. If you used lunch for Step 2 than this step would be your dinner)

You must pick at least 5 foods that you will serve for this meal, along with the prices of each meal. Remember to use a lot of adjectives to name and describe your meal

Step 4

The next section of your menu is your next course. Please put the title at the top of the page along with the time that you serve this meal from. ( If you used lunch for Step 3, this would be your dinner section. If you used dinner for Step 3 this would be your dessert section). You must pick at least 5 foods that you will serve for this meal, along with the prices of each meal. Remember to use a lot of adjectives to name and describe your meal

You can use pictures from magazines for each section, or use pictures that you find on the web.
